

Bulletin Announcement

Title: ANNOUNCING NEW Social Work Course with Trip to Botswana:

“SOWK 699: International Social Work: Botswana; Interdisciplinary HIV Services: Learning from Differentiated Care Models in Botswana and Baltimore City”

Text: UMB students from all schools may apply soon for this 3-hour elective social work course which will also include synchronous sessions with University of Botswana. Several in-person classes will be held for UMBstudents in the fall 2019 and spring 2020 terms.

The Botswana, Africa trip will be 4-20 January; this is a mandatory part of the course. Airfare/hotel/etc. costs will be charged separately (est. $2800). Students will be registered in the Spring 2020 term only, though there are UMB classes in the fall semester and in January in Botswana.

Interested?

- Check the UMSSW online Bulletin and the UMB online Elm for application details and class meeting dates, to be announced soon
- Email Dr. Caroline Long, clong@sww.umaryland.edu to be added to the mailing list